Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and probably Saturday; cooler tonight; light variable winds shifting to northeasterly.

RAMBLERS' CLUB ENTERTAIN.

One of the most enjoyable oyster roasts of the present season was that given by the Ramblers' Club at their parlors, on Cameron street, last night. A more jolly crowd of fellows than that gathered together there never met fraternally. The committee in charge had secured from Norfolk five barrels of the finest oysters obtainable and in addition had the trimmings, etc., which should accompany them such as celery, pickles, radishes, and the best creamery butter. Mr. Wm. Roberts presided at the roaster and saw to it that everyone was highly entertained. After the feast was over, which was late in the night, the company—about 100 strong—was entertained by an orchestra furnished by Mr. Henry Cheshire and speeches were made by a number of members of the club and a few visitors from Washington. Among those who were among the invited guests from Washington were Messrs. Harry D. Hayden, Geo. W. Edwards, Jacob Oppenheimer, Chas. Laupa, Julius Reiners, Joseph J. Crowley, T. Edward Dalley, Wm. Carroll, Arthur McMahon, Geo. Gardner, Chas. Gardner, Wm. E. Brown, Thomas Heispriger, Wm. B. Nelson, Gustavus Meyer, and Geo. W. Roberts.

During the evening Mr. J. Craven Peyton sang his own composition entitled "Something Good, but Nothing Missing" with telling effect.

AWARD AFFIRMED.

The Court of Appeals of Virginia, sitting at Staunton, has declined to grant a writ of error in the case of Elizabeth Churchman vs. Charles E. Churchman, which came up from the Circuit Court of Fairfax county. In the lower tribunal the jury brought in a $3,500 verdict in favor of the woman, who sued for $5,000 on an alleged breach of contract. The action of the court yesterday makes the woman a winner for good and all.

This couple formed a liaison in 1879 and lived together 30 years. Nine children, four of whom are now dead, were born to them. Repeatedly the woman urged the man to marry her. It appears that he was profligate in the matter of promises, but exceedingly shy when it came to actually go through the ceremony. Churchman, however, did provide well for the woman and children. After he had stubbornly refused to become a benedict the couple entered into an agreement touching a settlement, but this was never fully carried out, hence the litigation. Churchman gave the woman a house and several hundred dollars, but the jury awarded her $3,500 in addition.

TAKEN ILL.

Mr. F. W. Richardson, clerk of the Circuit Court, of Fairfax county, and Commonwealth's Attorney Vernon C. Ford, of the same county, went to New York the latter part of last week on business and Mr. Richardson was taken ill while there. He tried simple remedies but gradually grew worse, when he was taken to a hospital in that city for treatment. Word was immediately sent his family and his brother took the first train Tuesday for New York. The many friends in this city of Mr. Richardson express the hope that his illness may be of short duration.

Information received here today from New York is to the effect that Mr. Richardson is improving.

NO DECISION.

Attorney Daniel Coleman, of Norfolk, representing the prosecution, and R. O. L. Moncreux, of Alexandria, for the prisoner, yesterday argued the Bertha Bykin requisition matter before Governor Swanson at the Capitol. The young woman, who is under arrest in Washington, is charged with the larceny of clothing in Norfolk, but claims that it was a case of purchase. The governor referred the matter to the commonwealth's attorney of Norfolk for investigation and will act on the recommendation of that official. (Richmond Times Dispatch.)

AMUSEMENTS.

The Opera House was crowded last night and the vaudeville caused immense laughter from the start to the finish of the show. It can be truly said that those who are performing at the Opera House the last three nights of this week are artists of the first order.

At the Surprise Theatre there is a treat in store for all who attend tonight. As to the vaudeville portion of the entertainment it is of a top-notch order, while the pictures are fine.

ANTI-FEE ASSOCIATION.

At a recent meeting of the Mount Vernon Anti-Fee Association in Washington resolutions of indorsement of the movement to do away with the "fee system" in vogue at Mount Vernon were read from the Central Labor Union of the District of Columbia, the Army and Navy Union, the Spanish war veterans, and the Alexandria County Association. An extract from a speech of Commissioner West on a national highway to Mount Vernon was also read and discussed.

RIVER NOTES.

Seven torpedo boats passed up the river about five o'clock yesterday evening and one this morning. They will be present at the boat races in Washington tomorrow.

The schooner W. H. Maguire, from the lower river with canned goods for Alexandria merchants, has arrived.

The schooner C. R. Bennett, from Norfolk with shingles to Henry K. Field & Co., has arrived.

BROKE HIS ARM.

Mr. W. T. Green, a carpenter, and living at No. 526 south Henry street, while at work on a building at the power house at Four Mile Run, yesterday afternoon, fell off the building and broke his left arm. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where he received surgical attention.

ALEXANDRIA COUNCIL.

Alexandria Council, No. 33, Jr. O. U. A., held a most enjoyable meeting last evening. The council commenced its fall work by initiating two candidates and received two applications for membership. The membership is growing with a vim and the prediction is that during the fall and winter at least two hundred new members will be enrolled. The council will be nineteen years old on next Friday, and it will celebrate its anniversary on next Monday evening at the Young People's Building. The committee is arranging suitable exercises appropriate to a proper celebration of the event. It will be ladies night and it is expected that there will be a large turnout as no tickets for admission have been issued. Alexandria Council is no experiment, but a success financially, socially and numerically. Among the talent in some of the best both of this city and Washington. There will be one principal address of the evening by an editor of one of our southern papers.

THE GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT.

About five hundred persons attended the meeting in the interest of good roads at Pender, Fairfax county, yesterday, notwithstanding the inclement weather. A good roads association was organized.

The principal orator of the occasion was Judge William Hodges Mann, democratic nominee for governor of Virginia.

Rev. F. A. Strother, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South of the Pender district, was the principal promoter of the meeting.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Robert Dowdley, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Robert Smith, colored, charged with assaulting Ophelia Johnson, had his case continued.

Edward Johnson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

Marshall Harris, colored, charged with similar offenses, was dismissed.

Two cows which were astray in the streets were taken in charge by officers. Their owners were fined $2 each.

REGATTA.

Many Alexandrians will attend the regatta and carnival at Washington tomorrow. Several Alexandria boats have entered the races. The finish of the various races will be near the new highway bridge. The turning point for the fast boats will be off Jones' Point below this city; for cruiser launches off Shepard's Point, and for open power boats off the grigizine. The Alexandria boats, the Kindo and the Tryon II, will be in the fast boat race. Great things are expected of the Augusts.

DEATH OF MRS. BULL.

Mrs. Verlinda Ann Bull, whose critical illness had been mentioned in the Gazette, died at her home at Glen-carlyp, Alexandria county, early this morning. The deceased was the widow of the late Rev. Dr. John W. Bull, who died in the latter part of 1873, and was a daughter of the late William N. and Ann V. Brown. She was in the 79th year of her age. Mrs. Bull leaves one daughter, Mrs. Charles Burroughs, of the county.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of Dr. R. E. L. Johnston, who died in Brooklyn Tuesday, took place from the residence of his relative, Mr. Jas. E. Johnston, on Prince street, this morning. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, and the interment was in the family lot in the Presbyterian Cemetery. The pallbearers were Drs. W. M. Smith and Arthur Snowden and Messrs. Laurence Stabler, E. L. Allen, W. G. Chapman and R. S. Windsor.

FOOTBALL GAME TOMORROW.

The Alexandria Athletic Club football eleven will meet the Raleigh Athletic Club, a fast eleven from Washington, on north Alfred street grounds tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. This will be the first game of the season and a good one is promised. The A. A. C. will have a game every Saturday during the coming season.

FINE RECORD.

The 18th company, coast artillery, at Fort Hancock, N. J., has just made the highest record for big guns ever made in the United States. The company is commanded by Capt. O. L. Fisher, of Alexandria, and his many friends here extend him their warm congratulations.

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING.

Mr. R. Lee Field is replenishing his stock of clothing and furnishing goods. He is laying in a large and varied stock of fall and winter suits, and all persons contemplating the purchase of such goods should call at his store, 612 King street, and examine his assortment and prices.

THE AUTH MARKET.

Tomorrow there will be opened at the north west corner of King and Alfred streets, a store that will be an innovation to the people of Alexandria. It is our desire to call special attention to the Auth Market. In Washington Auth's fresh meats have achieved a reputation second to none and we do not doubt that the same will occur in Alexandria, where the name "Auth" has already become a household word. People who are particular about eating good food could not do better than patronize the Auth Market.

AUTUMN FESTIVAL.

Although the inclement weather probably kept some people from attending the autumn festival of the Red Men last night, those who attended were well repaid for their trouble, as there was something doing, as usual.

The competitive drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry drew a good audience, and a large proportion of the company participated. After an exciting contest, in which all the members showed good form, the contestants dwindled to two and finally Private C. J. Deahl, jr., was declared the victor and Private C. A. Diemel, second. Captain Slaymaker and Lieutenant May of the company acted as judges for the drill.

Amidst cheering Private Deahl was escorted to the speaker's stand where Representative C. O. Carlin in a complimentary address presented him with a handsome gold medal bearing the inscription "Competitive Drill, Autumn Festival Seminoles Tribe, Sep. 16, '09." A lively interest is being taken in the contest for the punch bowl to be awarded to the member of the tribe receiving the most votes and quite a number of votes are being polled for the leaders, Messrs. Ficks, Jameson, Glasgow and May. Most of the articles for which chances are being taken are doing well and it would take a hard hearted man to resist the winning smiles of the pretty girls who are selling chances for same. As the fair cannot last much longer those who want to witness the army at its best and see a fair which has not been equalled for picturesqueness are advised to go to the remaining nights of the week.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Relief Hook and Ladder Company will meet tonight.

At a meeting of the Old Dominion Boat Club held this morning one new member was elected.

Mr. Charles Bandholm has given a contract to Contractor J. D. Knight for the remodeling and putting in of a new front in the building No. 522 King street. When completed the first floor will be occupied by the Alexandria Electric Company and the two other floors will be converted into flats.

As was stated in the Gazette, the tool house at Rosemont was robbed a few days ago. Constable Payne later arrested John R. Ridd on suspicion of the theft. The constable today recovered six hand saws, a steel plane and a ratchet brace which had been taken from the house and sold to different persons.

Towering above the bier of Julius Caesar, stood one Marc Antony. On his face was a look of grim determination. With the voice of one who spoke with deepest feeling, he said: "Friends, fellow citizens, and Romans, listen unto me, for I was a friend to Caesar and Caesar was a friend to you. Ye that loved him well, weep not, and ye that loved him enemy, curse him not, for today great Caesar is dead, and tomorrow the Auth Market will be opened. Let us rejoice," in the meantime don't forget that the Auth Market will be standing at the same old stand in the city market. Sylvan Bloedheim, The Auth Stand and the Auth Market.
